Discussions related to UG and PG Syllabus:

UG - Suggestions:

* Programs using functions, structures and unions should be included in C Programming Lab taught in I Semester

* Programs using exceptions should be included in C++ Programming Lab taught in II Semester.

* Delete Graphics concepts in Java Programs in III Semester

* SQL commands may be taught in Database Management System. Relational calculus in Unit I may be replaced with SQL Commands.

* HTML Lab (3 units) may be included in MS Office Lab (2 units) in IV Semester.

* Unitization in Operating Systems and Software Engineering should be reorganized.

* The elective paper "Web Technology" should be changed as "Web Design"

* Network layer, Presentation layer and session layer may be included instead of TCP/IP suite in Computer Networks in V Semester.

PG Suggestions:

* Digital Marketing paper may be introduced instead of Adv. Microprocessors in I Semester. OOAD 2 units may be included in UML.

* .Net Lab in II Sem may be replaced by Javascript Lab.

* JSON programming may be introduced instead of XML in Smart Devices Programming Lab in III Semester. Text for cloud computing should be changed.

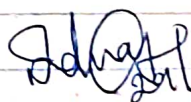

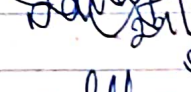

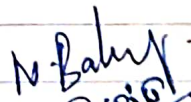

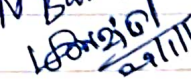

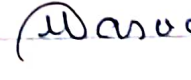

* AWT in Adv. Java Programming taught in I Semester may be removed.

* Distributed Technologies paper in II Sem may be replaced by Web Technologies which include ASP.Net, 2 unit and Scripting 3 units.

The course pattern and syllabi for both UG and PG courses were discussed and the above suggestions were given by subject experts.

The course pattern and syllabi were approved.

For UG,

Discussions relating to general course Pattern:

Some syllabus of UG courses were suggested & were carried out.

It's recommended to introduce ~~Pop~~ skill based course paper - I - LATEX, skill based courses paper II & III yoga papers (Theory & practical).

Discussions relating to new syllabus of Majors Elective papers - HTML & JAVA Script, instead 'C' programming.

The syllabus will hold good for the UG students admitted from the batch 2018-2019 onwards.

The university syllabus will be followed for the Gender studies.

Necessary change in the syllabus of the environmental studies & value Education. Necessary changes in the syllabus of the Major & Allied papers were suggested.

For I, II & III year Major and Allied Maths papers suggestions were given to modified the syllabus given importance to basic concepts rather than to given vast syllabus.

There will be 13 core courses (1 paper with 6 credits and 11 courses 5 credits and 1 paper 4 credits)

There will be 3 Elective papers (3 papers with 5 credits)

There will be 3 skill based papers with 2 credits for each.

Extension Activity 1 credits.

Minutes of Board of Studies -

The board resolved to approve the common course pattern recommended by Bharathidasan University.

After thorough discussion, the Board has suggested some of the correction for incorporation. The syllabi for B.Sc Botany for the academic year 2018-2019 held on 29.01.2018 at the department of Botany have been scrutinized by the Board with following-

1. Each paper carries the objectives of the study.
2. Regularisation of unitized pattern for almost uniform weightages in response to the Unit.
3. Systemisation of topics have been defered as per standard system of syllabi.
4. Whenever necessary, the correction have been made.
5. Some of the practicals needed for more reference also quoted.
6. Relevant textbooks and reference books have been cited.
7. Modern application oriented topic have been introduced in Core and Elective papers.

3. Uniformity to be maintained in quoting text books and References.

4. Students must be increased to visit industries and to go on for field trip, with reference to the curriculum.

Suggestions:

1. Practical paper code 18VBD11P of the Vth Semester need to be incorporated in the VIth Semester in relevance with the theory paper.

1. University Nominee : Dr. H. Syed Sahangeer

2. Subject Experts : 1. Dr. J. Abraham Mathaleen

2. Prof. A.L. Palanisamy.
