CRITERION VII – INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

7.1.10.1 Policy Document

Policy Document on Code of Conduct for Students

Kalaighnar Karunanidhi Government Arts College for Women has a well-structured Code of Ethics for students, teachers and other staff. Every student of the College should abide by Code of Conduct of the College. Ragging is prohibited in the campus. Students should not involve in any kind of ragging activity.

Students are monitored by the Discipline Committee of the College. Students who violate the code of conduct of the institution are identified and their parents are called for a meeting with the discipline committee. The student is warned for the first time before her parent, and if she continues to violate the code of ethics of the institution, she will be punished by the Principal under government educational regulations. The punishment may be Payment of penalty or Suspension from college or Dismissal from college.

Policy Document on Code of Conduct for Teachers and other Staff

Since the institution is a Government institution, the staff members should follow the Service Rules and Regulations of the Government of India and the State Government in all matters related to Code of Conduct, leave, College timings and maintaining students' information. Violating any of the rules by any staff member will be brought to the notice of the higher officials like Regional Joint Director of Collegiate Education and Director of Collegiate Education and departmental action will be taken.
